A Free Guitar Clinic with
John Jorgenson
& the John Jorgenson Quintet

Monday June 13th 7:00 to 9:00 PM
Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery 12th & 'R' St, Lincoln, NE

Jorgenson is a multi-faceted talent whose accomplishments range from touring Europe as a bassoonist with a Chamber Orchestra, guitarist with the Grammy nominated "Desert Rose Band," and a 10-year stint with the pyrotechnical guitar band, "The Hellecasters." After an 18 month world tour with Elton John on guitar and mandolin, he pursued a solo career of original music. His most recent incarnation, in a literal sense is acting (and playing!) the role of legendary

Gypsy-jazz guitarist, Django Reinhardt. Having contributed soundtracks and co-starring as the great innovator in the recent movie, "Head in the Clouds" Jorgenson is currently touring with a "Hot Club" style acoustic jazz string band in which he plays both guitar and clarinet. His stop in Lincoln is prior to his appearance in Europe at the international "Samois sur Siene" Django Festival.
